Kicking off the school musical season, Swansboro-by-the-Sea will be transformed into an under-the-sea wonder world Friday, March 13 and Saturday, March 14, 2015 for the Swansboro Middle School performance of Disney's Little Mermaid Jr.

A cast of 60 students, ranging in ages from 11 to 14, have been rehearsing for the musical since early autumn. The story follows the tale of a young mermaid who longs to be human and the steep price she's willing to pay to be part of the world above the sea. The performance boasts colorful sets and an ocean of young talent. Directed by stage veteran, Kristen Viszneki and Swansboro newcomer, Zachary Borge, this show is sure to captivate audiences of all ages.

The curtain goes up the second weekend in March with a 7:00 PM performance on Friday, March 13, 2015 and a 2:00 PM matinee on Saturday, March 14, 2015 followed by the final performance at 7:00 PM that evening.

Tickets are $6.00 for adults and $4.00 for students under 18. Anyone who purchases a Little Mermaid T-shirt from the Middle School office in advance for $10 will be admitted for free to the show. Questions can be directed to the Middle School Office at: 910-326-3601.
